

March 14, 2012

What's the Craic: Planning Your Perfect St. Paddy's

If you want to get so sloshed you forget what you're celebrating...

Green Breakfast of Champions

Starting your St. Paddy's partying on an empty stomach is a poor life choice, so pregame the all-day drinkathon with a Green Breakfast of Champions at Village Pourhouse and SideBar. From 8am-4pm, build up a good base for the impending booze with a not-so-traditional Irish breakfast, swapping black pudding and beans for green eggs (alas, no ham), pancakes, bagels and bowls o' Lucky Charms, plus good ol' green beer to wash down the whole festive feast.

A \$20 ticket gets you the kegs 'n' eggs special, or you can splurge for the $60 "Lucky Shamrock" package and get an additional four-hour green beer open bar. With a belly brimming with b'fast bites and brews, you'll be more than ready for a day full of drunken debauchery.

SideBar 118 E. 15th St. @ Irving Pl. (Gramercy) 212.677.2900

Luck of the Irish Saint Paddy's Day Pub Crawl

With hordes of "Kiss Me, I'm Irish"-shirted partiers swarming Midtown bars come March 17th, you're sure to get lucky with at least one gee-eyed partygoer, but why not up your chances of scoring a, ahem, pot of gold at the Luck of the Irish Saint Paddy's Day Pub Crawl! Garner up enough liquid courage to chat up the Galway girl or guy of your dreams with $1 10-oz. brews, $3 well drinks and $4 Jameson's at watering holes like Chelsea Manor, The Caulfield, T.G. Whitney's and Little Town from 10am to the wee hours of the morn. Buddy up for discounted packages ($70/4 people, $115/7 and $160/12) or go solo with a \$20 ticket, but after prowling this St. Paddy's pub crawl, you definitely won't be going home solo!

T. G. Whitney's 244 E. 53rd St. Bt. 2nd & 3rd Aves. (Midtown East) 212.888.5772