People always say that the cure to a hangover is to drink more and, on the day after St. Paddy's day, The Village Pourhouse is putting that to the test! Come down and join the Hangover Saint Paddy's Pub Crawl and "cure" that Irish-style migraine with drinks from various bars as you crawl (literally) about the streets looking for something to soothe your pain (alcohol). We know St. Paddy's can be rough on the wallet, so this pub crawl comes with killer drink specials like $1 (10 oz.) domestic draft, $2 domestic bottle, $3 well drinks and $4 Jameson. It's the only way to spend the day after a night of true boozin'. Purchase your all-day pass for only $40 here!
